BPC (founded in 1974 as Book Publishing The Farm, an intentional community in Summertown, Tennessee. We are dedicated to publishing books that help create a more ecologically and socially conscious society.

Our plant-based cookbooks highlight delicious food that supports our health along with the health of the planet, and our Healthy Living imprint offers both contemporary and legacy titles on natural wellness solutions. Native Voices spotlights Native American culture, while 7th Generation focuses on Indigenous young adult fiction and nonfiction as well as juvenile picture books. GroundSwell Books is an imprint dedicated to environmental concerns and eco living. All BPC books are printed on stock certified by the Forest Stewardship Council.

RECENT TITLES

NEW for 2023

Healthy Living. Nutrition experts show how to meet your protein needs on a vegan diet in Plant-Powered Protein (p. 5).

Native Voices. We acquired Cherokee Publications and have made available a few more of their memorable classics on Cherokee society (pp. 23–24).

7th Generation. For young adults, we offer an Indigenous supernatural thriller, Billy Buckhorn and the Book of Spells (p. 2), and two more PathFinders hi-lo novels, The Roan Stallion (p. 3) and A Quiet Storm (p. 11). For juveniles, there are two beautifully illustrated picture books: Father Eagle and the Hunter (p. 4) and The Cottonwood Sings (p. 7). We also present a series of board books (pp. 8–9) from the Taos Pueblo Tiwa Language Program that encourages teaching Indigenous languages to young children.

GroundSwell Books. Captain Paul Watson shares his memoirs in Hitman for the Kindness Club (p. 10), and artist Sarah Borg has a new children's picture book, Commotion in the Ocean (p. 6), about caring for our seas.

We hope our titles help you enjoy the best of health, good eats, and diversity in children's and young adult books, as well as deepen your understanding of our environment and the challenges we face.

Thank you for your support!

BILLY BUCKHORN AND THE BOOK OF SPELLS

The Thunder Child Prophecy: Book One

Gary Robinson

- ♦ Can a teen with psychic insights defeat an ancient evil that has returned to destroy his Cherokee Nation?

Struck by lightning and brought back from the brink of death, Billy must contend with extraordinary visions and psychic insights. These new “gifts” prove to be both challenging and necessary as Billy realizes his calling to protect and defend his people.

Billy’s first vision and adversary is the ancient Raver Stalker, who has the power to suck the very life force out of human beings. This is just the beginning of a prophesied quest to vanquish mythical evil forces that threaten to overtake the Cherokee Nation.

“Enter a world of magic and intrigue where the old ways and new technology intertwine. Copious exposition explains the world and the traditions of the Cherokee people (without revealing cultural knowledge that has not already been publicly shared), but this series opener keeps the action moving.”

THE ROAN STALLION

The Legend of Big Heart: Book Two

Alfreda Beartrack-Algeo

- ◆ Historical fiction that takes place in 1930 on the Lower Brule Lakota reservation.
- ◆ Introduces the legendary Medicine Hat blue roan stallion and a 500-year-old tradition of Native American horse relay racing.

Young Lakota teen Alfred Swallow forms a deep relationship with a wild stallion. Not just any stallion, but a sacred and legendary Medicine Hat blue roan stallion that is believed to have special powers.

Their bond reaches far into a world of hope and dreams. Alfred knows his grandfather could use a new tractor. He decides to enter the annual White River Relay Race and collect the prize money. With the help of his friends, Alfred prepares to train the horse.

Even though the odds are against Alfred and his team, something in the grandstand catches his eye on the day of the race, and that changes everything. Can Alfred's determination and prayers carry them through to win?

FATHER EAGLE AND THE HUNTER

Alfreda Beartrack-Algeo

- ◆ Ancestral intertribal story taking place in a time of looming starvation and drought.
- ◆ Native people have a special bond with the Eagle nation that holds true today.
- ◆ This story was originally shared with the author by a Cheyenne elder.

When the hunter spotted a tall tree, he climbed to the top and discovered a nest with three eaglets. “What a tasty soup the three little birds will make!” thought the hunter.

Hearing the eaglets’ cries, Father Eagle flew to their rescue. Father Eagle told the hunter that if he did not take the eaglets, he would ask the Great Spirit to help the village.

Father Eagle soared high into the sky and soon returned. He told the hunter that the Great Spirit would help his people and not let his village perish.

From that day forward, the game was plentiful, the people flourished, and the Eagle was forever respected and honored.

PLANT-POWERED PROTEIN

Nutrition Essentials and Dietary Guidelines for All Ages

Brenda Davis, RD
Vesanto Melina, MS, RD
Corey Davis, MBA, P.Ag

- ◆ Brenda Davis and Vesanto Melina's books have sold over 700,000 copies.
- ◆ Chapter quizzes dispel common fallacies about plant-based nutrition.

Economically and ecologically, plant-based diets have been and will continue to be a viable lifestyle choice. This new book title assures readers that plants can be a wholesome and abundant source of protein as well.

The authors of Becoming Vegan Comprehensive Edition, Brenda Davis, RD, and Vesanto Melina RD, MS, join agrologist Cory Davis to present the science and studies that validate why protein derived from plants is not only comparable to protein from animal products but is often superior to it!

Learn how amino acids found in plant protein promote healthy growth and how to meet daily (protein) allowance for specific ages as well as for athletes and pregnant women. Key advantages to eating plant protein, such as the low carbon footprint and health advantages due to protection against chronic diseases, are also discussed.

Pantry suggestions and cooking tips, along with 30 mouth-watering recipes, make it easy to put this essential information into practice.

THE COTTONWOOD SINGS

Alfreda Beartrack-Algeo

- ◆ Delightful Indigenous story about the First Woman and the First Man.
- ◆ Introduces the concept of the four directions and the sacred medicine wheel.

There is something quite intriguing and magical about creation stories which draws kids in. Children will enjoy this tale about love, selflessness, and how the four directions came to be.

The lovely Hunku (First Woman) was immortal and never aged. The animals and plants loved her, but she was lonely. Every day she would go to the riverbank and cry herself to sleep. Beaver, who lived in the river, fell in love with the beautiful Hunku and begged the Great Spirit to turn him into a man.

Beaver became Takahe (First Man), but the Great Spirit told him that one day he would have to go back to being Beaver. Hunku and Takahe had four beautiful daughters who moved to the North, South, East, and West.

The day came when Beaver returned to the river. Hunku asked the Great Spirit to turn her into a tree so her long roots would always be close to Beaver. The Great Spirit agreed to her request, and to this day you will find cottonwood trees living near bodies of water and beavers living near cottonwood trees.

COMMOTION IN THE OCEAN

Sarah Borg

- ♦ Children learn about the problem of overfishing the ocean.
- ♦ Children are encouraged to become caretakers of the earth.

This excellent book helps adults introduce children to some of the environmental issues that face us today in an age-appropriate way. Playful illustrations of a variety of sea creatures teach children ways humans can help save our ocean friends.

Word spreads across the ocean about a meeting to hatch a plan of defense against fishing trawlers (aka “the monsters”). Brightly colored crabs and lobsters, sea snails, polka-dotted fish, and whales and dolphins rally together and appeal—with a hug and a kiss—to humans to make the right choices when they shop.

The tale concludes with a sweet Sea Shepherd shanty about the brave crews who sailed the seas to protect whales, dolphins, and fish in need. We’re all invited to join these kind individuals and help keep our ocean clean and full of fish.

TAOS PUEBLO FOUR SEASONS SERIES

Taos Pueblo, located in northern New Mexico, is one of the longest continuously inhabited communities known. Their Tiwa language is a dialect of Tanoan, which is not a written language but instead is taught through oral tradition.

Beautiful and vibrant hand-drawn illustrations portray the four seasons of the year and life in Taos Pueblo community. These delightful board books, written without text, were created by the Taos Pueblo's Tiwa Language Program to preserve the Tiwa culture and revitalize the Tiwa language by teaching it to younger generations. Proceeds directly support Taos Pueblo's Tiwa Language Program.

- ◆ These board books are beautifully illustrated by four distinct and well-known Taos Pueblo artists.
- ◆ These books are useful tools for teaching Indigenous languages in danger of being lost.
- ◆ Wordless board books allow children to use their imagination and create new stories each time they look through the book.

 Adventures of an Eco-Activist

Captain Paul Watson

- ◆ Watson was the founder of Sea Shepherd Conservation Society.
- ◆ Officially labeled a pirate by a District Court judge in the U.S. 9th Circuit.

One man's difficult upbringing inspired him to create a life dedicated to protecting our oceans and eco-systems. From the adrenaline rushes you'll get as you dive into one exciting escapade after another to feelings of gratitude for the work Watson has accomplished, this book will provide inspiration and motivation.

Aida Flemming, founder of the Kindness Club, a humane educational organization in Canada, dubbed fellow member Paul Watson "the hit man for the Kindness Club" in 1981.

This collection of essays covers Watson's early years of activism to outrageous and courageous Sea Shepherd campaigns on every ocean and continent, illuminating his efforts to protect the rights of animals, ecosystems, and Indigenous peoples.

Watson also describes events that led him to relocate to the U.S. and begin his newest venture, the Captain Paul Watson Foundation. For more information, visit Paulwatson.com.

Captain Paul Watson is a Canadian American marine conservationist, master mariner, author, educator, and poet. He is a prolific author of over fifteen titles including a children's book, We Are the Ocean (2022). Born in Ontario, Canada, he currently resides with his wife and children in Vermont, USA.

A QUIET STORM

Sydney's Journey: Book Three

Kim Sigafus

- ◆ Addresses the issue of bullying in high school.
- ◆ Introduces the concept and power of a women's circle.

There are many common struggles that adolescents face today. Bullying is one, as is feeling anxious and alone. Many teens will be able to relate and identify with Sydney's experiences.

Sydney has at last come to terms with the anguish of being a bully and being bullied herself. But when her boyfriend reveals that he is looking forward to going away to college, another issue arises: Sydney finds herself dealing with deep separation anxiety. She believes he is deserting her—just like her father did.

Sydney retreats into herself and pushes her boyfriend and others away. Luckily, her best friend points out that her response is not healthy. Sydney decides to attend a Native women's sharing circle with her mother. Here Sydney realizes that the quiet storm troubling her heart can finally be healed.

THE MAGIC LAKE: A MYSTICAL HEALING LAKE OF THE CHEROKEE

A Legendary Story for Children

Tom B. Underwood

Illustrated by Shirley Simmons

978-0-935741-08-7 / $4.95

20 pp / saddle-stitched / 8½ x 11 / full color

All Cherokee children heard the story of the magic lake where sick and wounded animals would go for healing. A great hunter, Walk the Forest, pursues a huge black bear in the Smoking (Smoky) Mountains. He wounds the bear and pursues him for days. Walk the Forest falls asleep and wakes to see a shimmering lake with animals swimming and bathing in the mysterious waters. The bear is now magically healed. Thunder booms and the voice of the Great Spirit tells Walk the Forest to instruct his people that they must never follow wounded animals to the lake—or else their game will vanish and the lake will dry up.

AMERICAN INDIAN COOKING & HERB LORE

Tom B. Underwood

Illustrated by Anchtin and Stroud

978-0-935741-05-6 / $7.95

32 pp / saddle-stitched / 6 x 9 / full color

From Sweet Potato Cakes and Batter-Fried Squash Blossoms to thirty-two other recipes with familiar and not-so-familiar ingredients, this enchanting book is a treasury of food legends, recipes, and herb uses from many Native American tribes. Includes a listing of common herbs and their medicinal uses of olden times.

CHEROKEE PSALMS

A Collection of Hymns in the Cherokee Language

Translated by Daniel Scott

Editor/Designer J. Ed Sharpe

ISBN 978-0-93574-116-2 / $5.95

34 pp / trade paper / 8 ½ x 11 / illustrated, paperback

Now you can sing in Cherokee! This collection of traditional Christian hymns and psalms are written both in English and in Cherokee sounds. English sound equivalents replace instead of Cherokee characters, making it possible for anyone or group to sing their favorite hymns in the Cherokee language. Songs have English translations.

HISTORY OF THE CHEROKEE INDIAN

Emmet Starr

978-0-935741-30-8 / $40.00

684 pp / trade paper / 5½ x 8½ / black and white photographs

First published in 1921, this book is considered by many as one of the few basic resources available for serious study of Cherokee history, legal documents, and biographical information on leaders and old families. Accounts of the early Cherokees, their constitution, treaties with the federal government, land transactions, school system, migration and resettlement, committees, councils, and officials, religion, language, and culture are among the topics covered. More than half the book is devoted to genealogies and biographies—of which there are several hundred—that include information on births, marriages, and deaths over a period of several generations.

CHEROKEE DANCE

Ceremonial Dances & Dance Regalia

Written and illustrated by Donald Sizemore

978-0-935741-21-6 / $24.95

175 pages / trade paper / 8 1/2 x 11 / illustrations and photos

This sizeable volume presents comprehensive details of 27 traditional Cherokee dances. Using many illustrations and easy-to-follow sketches, the author explains the dances, how to do them, what regalia was worn, and how to make it. Includes both black and white and full color drawings and photographs.
