A Short Walk Home is a heartfelt and inspirational memoir of a father raising and ultimately losing a child to the neurological disorder adrenoleukodystrophy (ALD) a genetically determined neurological disorder that affects 1 in every 17,900 boys worldwide..

This story candidly explores the full extent to which a disease like ALD can shape and affect a life, as both David Cry and his family try to come to grips with the inevitable conclusion to their struggles. His account is one of appreciating what you have, making the most of the time you have left, and finding solace in the face of grief.

David Cry is the Founder/ CEO of The Adrenoleukodystrophy Foundation, an organization founded in 2000 and having served the needs of families in over 150 countries.

Bonnie-Jill Laflin

In a League of Her Own, Celebrating Female Firsts in Sports, Bonnie-Jill Laflin shares the stories of women from the field to the front office who achieved record-breaking accomplishments and changed expectations, featuring new interviews with and profiles of Billie Jean King, Jackie Joyner-Kersey, Danica Patrick, Jeanie Buss, Nadia Comăneci, Mary Lou Retton and more.

Bonnie-Jill is a trailblazing sports broadcaster and the first and only female NBA scout, holding the front office executive position with the Los Angeles Lakers. She's the first woman to dance at a professional level for three teams, in two sports, starting with the NBA's Golden State Warriors, and moving to the NFL for both the San Francisco 49ers and the Dallas Cowboys. She is the first female to be awarded six championship rings in two professional sports, earning a Super Bowl ring during her time cheering for the 49ers, and five NBA championship rings as an executive for the Lakers. She has worked as a reporter and host for ESPN, NBA TV, NBC/NBC Sports, NFL Films, Westwood One, CBS, E!, BBC Sports, SiriusXM, NFR Live, and Fox Sports, and is a host ambassador for Michael Jordan's "Jordan Brand."

Tara Pringle Jefferson

BLOOM HOW YOU MUST: A Black Woman's Guide to Self-Care, by Tara Pringle Jefferson, will put Black women at the forefront of the wellness conversation. The title BLOOM HOW YOU MUST comes from a Lucille Clifton poem, "Mulberry Fields," about the enduring legacy of Black People. Tara is the founder of The Self Care Suite, a wellness community for Black women and other women of color.

Self-care is now a multi-billion dollar industry, and it is not a trend or frivolous matter for Black women. It has always been a throughline: Consider Coretta Scott King on girls' trips with fellow activist Betty Shabazz and Myrlie Evers-Williams to take a break from the stress of the civil rights movement. Remember Rosa Parks attending (and leading!) yoga classes in the midst of her Detroit activism. Bloom How You Must will connect the dots in one easy to read, digestible book—part guide/part journal with exercises to put each segment of wellness into practice. Her voice has been featured on New York Magazine/The Cut, Black Enterprise and Essence.

We Promised Utopia is a sci-fi epic centered around Mexican-American charismatic idealist, Isabel Bari, and her development of the Equivalent Carbon Credit (ECC) which ties every element of the global economy to a carbon-based currency.

Witness the rise of a utopian society, its budding growth, and its descent into dystopia.

"A timely, engrossing SF tale with an environmental theme and striking art" that "offers readers just as many reasons to return for the sequel." Kirkus Reviews

"The pacing here is superb and as it takes us through the pages revealing the world, the story and the characters it certainly piques our curiosity to know more." Steven Leitman, GEEKS

Literati Press

The comics focus on three separate eras of humanity: the rise of the ECC in the present day, the establishment of a utopian world that adopted the ECC, and a dystopian future after the mysterious collapse of the ECC.

- Strong female protagonist
- Diverse characters
- Multi POV
- fast-paced, intriguing, aspirational, adventurous

A Hippy-Hoppy Toad: It's hard to be a tiny toad minding your own business on a twig. First a bird pecks at him. . . . Then a bee buzzes. . . . Then a dog barks . . . and so on. And each time the toad is surprised by a buzz or a woof (or the toe of a sneaker!), he hops to a new location farther down the road. With fun sounds, clever rhymes, and an irresistible rhythm, this delightful children's book is a Junior Library Guild Selection.

"[Peggy Archer and Anne Wilsdorf] capture both the comedy and peril of the little toad's adventures in this wonderful read-aloud." —The Wall Street Journal

Peggy Archer is also the author of Name that Dog: Puppy Poems from A to Z and Turkey Surprise* (translation rights available).
